JOSEPH PURDY

In the name of God, Amen, I Joseph Purdy, of the town of Rye, in the county of Westchester, being sick in body, I appoint my wife, Elizabeth and Colonel Caleb Heathcote and John Hyatt, my executors. I leave to my dearly beloved wife, Elizabeth Purdy, during her life, provided she does not marry again, all my movable estate, and the use of my dwelling house and barn and one-half of the farm where I now live. I leave to my eldest son, Joseph, all my right of land and meadows in the White Plain Purchase, lying on the West side of the Mamaroneck River which I had by draft from the town of Rye, and also a piece of salt meadow lying at the lower end of my neck by the mill creek, over against the red bank, bounded north by a great tree, lying in said meadow, and south by my son, Daniel's line, and containing about an acre. And he is to pay yearly to his mother, 20 shillings. I leave to my son, Daniel, besides the land given to him by deed of gift, all the land and meadow which shall be taken by running the same line from the southernmost bounds on the east side of his lot to the Mill Creek, which he now doth (own?), from the rear of his lot to the country road. I leave to my son, Samuel, one-half of my lot and farm where I now live, except my dwelling house and barn. Also one-half of my land on Budd's Neck. I leave to my son, David, all my right of land and meadow on Brown's Point. I leave to my sons, Johnathan and John, all the rest of my lands and Meadows east of Blind Brook, except a small piece of land lying near the falls of Blind Brook, which I empower my wife to sell. I leave to my son, Francis, after my wife's decease, or when she shall think fit to put him in possession, my dwelling house and barn, and one-half of my home lot and farm, where I now live, and one-half of my land on Budd's Neck. I leave to my daughters, Elizabeth, Jude, Mary, and Phebe, each 20 shillings. The rest of my movable estate my wife may divide among my children.

Dated: October 25, 1709; witnesses, Elizabeth Ogden, Abraham Miller, Anthony Miller. Proved before Governor Robert Hunter, October 26, 1710.

Daughter "Jude" Judith

1. Francis Purdy, immigrant, 1595-1658-- from Yorkshire, England. (Some say York itself) - to Boston, 1633, thence to Fairfield, Conn., 1635, died there in 1658, married previously to probably 1642, 1632, (I have seen a later date given) Mary Brundage. She was the daughter of John Brundage, who married Katherine Browne, said to have been the daughter of Thomas Brown of Rye, Sussex, England, of very distinguished descent, but I do not have the line. Thomas Browne was a descendant of Sir Anthony Browne, Founder of the Montague Family and a descendant of Henry 5, all most interesting, if it can be proved.

Francis Purdy was an Episcopalian, perhaps the Rector of the first church in Fairfield. After his death in 1658 (he left a will, I have often wondered whether it is in print somewhere), Mary Brundage Purdy married in the same year, John Hoyt, son of Simon, and had other children. I correspond with a descendant of both Francis Purdy and John Hoyt, through a marriage of one of John Hoyt's children by his first wife, and one of Francis Purdy's children, as Mary Purdy was the second wife of John Hoyt. Francis Purdy had about 5 children, two or three sons and two daughters, at least. Joseph, is supposed to have been the eldest son.

2. Joseph Purdy, born Fairfield, Conn., about 1653, died Rye, N.Y., 10-25-1709, married 1st (I have Ann Richardson, but believe it to be a mistake-- anyway there was no issue according to any authorities I know--she died in about a year) and Joseph married 2nd, Elizabeth Ogden, died 1742. I have her on my chart from several authorities, the daughter of John Ogden, immigrant, 1600-1683, married 1st, 1627 in England....? who died 1637. Married 2nd, 1638, Judith Budd, daughter of Lieut. John Budd, and Katherine Browne (See above) I have an account of the Budds but believe that John's ancestry is not very well established.)

Joseph Purdy was an early settler of Rye, N. Y., Supervisor, 1707-8, a member of the Colonial Assembly several years--prominent in the Episcopal church of Rye, had seven sons and four or five daughters (see Will)

3. John Purdy (Still John), he took it as his legal name, after he was grown, probably because he said little, I am certainly thankful that he was so thoughtful of his descendants who are interested in tracing ancestry, for there were many John Purdys by that time--and it seems very likely that he used his nickname in order to be distinguished from the rest--if he hadn't, "O Boy!", as the children say. He was born 12-9-1695, died after 1770, and before 1774. Owned land and a mill in Northcastle, Westchester County, 1758 (See D.A.R. Magazine, Jan. 1927, p. 17) Some authorities say that his son, Elisha (4), was born 1740 in Northcastle, and some (My D.A.C. supplementary on Francis, (1), corrected my statement, and put instead, New Rochell. If this is true, Still John must have lived for a time in the latter place. (m. Rebecca-- Rye Hist.)

(Now covered by Croton Lake or reservoir)

He married about 1726, Elizabeth ...?, born 7-12-1709, had six children.

4. Elisha Purdy, 3-17-1740--3-20-1820 (Wherever he was born, he died in Marlboroughtown, Ulster Co. He was an Episcopal clergyman--served in Ulster County Militia, 4th Regiment. (See N. Y. in the Rev. p. 264) I have a D.A.R. supplementary approved on his service. He lived in Marlborough at the beginning of the Rev. but later is said to have lived, at least for a time after the war, in the Town of Greensburgh, near what is now known as Elmsford. In later life, however, he lived in Marlborough, and both he and his wife are buried in the Marlborough Cemetery.

He married about 1761, Mehitable Smith, 6-22-1744--1-23-1833--daughter of the Rev. and Dr. (M.D.) John Smith, of Rye and White Plains who married Mehitable Hooker. She was descended from the Hookers, Willetts, Leetes, Fenns, Browns, Baldwins, etc. Rev. John Smith graduated from Yale and a few years later took his degree of A. M. His father, Thomas Smith, came to America in 1715, and settled for a time at least in N. Y. City. He was one of the founders of the First Presbyterian Church in the City. His wife was Susanna Odell, the daughter of a gentleman who resided about four miles from New Port Pagnell, the home, also of the Smiths. (All the above concerning this Smith Family, is taken from the Hooker Gen. by Edw. Hooker, there is more Smith data if anyone is interested.)

They had a large family which in some instances can be traced. Newport-Pagnell, Buckinghamshire

5. Nathaniel Purdy, 8-3-1786--3-26-1829, lived, we believe, in Marlborough Town, from about 1814; he is mentioned in Town Records. He married 7-2-1809, Elizabeth Dickinson, 9-10-1788--6-2-1853, daughter of Joseph Dickinson, 4-13-1745--died after 1792, served in the Rev. (I have a supplementary on his service--the genealogists in Washington gave his residence as Montgomery Town, Ulster Co.) His wife was Elizabeth, 6-16-1749--1833. I have their Bible record with dates of birth of all children, but have no data on descendants except their daughter Elizabeth. I think it likely that Joseph was a descendant of Nathaniel Dickinson, immigrant, who married Anna Gull, widow, have a good deal of data on Nathaniel's descendants, many Josephs but all too far back.

6. John Smith Purdy, 1-3-1812--3-22-1863, born in Marlborough, Ulster County, in the late 30's removed to Balmville, a suburb of Newburgh, N.Y in Orange Co., N.Y., a wagonmaker.

He married 6-5-1834, Loretta Rhoades, 10-28-1816--9-1885. She was descended from Jeriah Rhoades of Ulster County, Lattintown, Marlborough Town. He is first mentioned there in 1768, had been married some years before--(I have a supplementary on him and on one of his sons, John, my gr-gr-father--three of his sons served, one was killed. We have never been able to connect him with the New England or Long Island Rhoades, or John of Scarsdale, Westchester. He had many children by two wives.)--21 it is said, but only 19 in the records.

7. Wilson Purdy, 10-23-1839--4-9-1901, born Newburgh, N.Y. died Wichita, Kansas. Served throughout the Civil War, Capt. 1864, First N.Y. Mounted Rifles, in 1865, was made Major by Brevet. Spent 7 years in S.A. after the War, was for 5 years Capt. of river Steamer, Edward Everett, passenger and freight; came West about 1874--married 12-18-1879, Lucinda Elizabeth Smith, daughter of John Lowry and Mary Melinda Smith of Jackson Co., Iowa. Lived about two or three years after marriage in Hutchinson, Kansas, then removed to Butler Co. in Kansas. Major by Brevet--1865.

8. Lulu Edna Purdy, born 10-28-1880, married 1906 Franklin Leonard Gilson.

Ethel Wilson Purdy--born 2-23-1882, Hutchinson, Kansas. d. 1949 unm.

- V. Lulu Edna Purdy: b. 1880, m. 1906, Winfield, Kansas; Franklin Leonard Gilson, b. 1875, Fayette Co., Iowa.

Notes: Relatives believed that the name was Dickson or Dixon until we found the family record some years ago of Joseph Dickinson, b. 1745. He served during the Revolution with Ulster Co. troops and the D.A.R. granted supplemental papers on his service--the same with the service in Ulster County of Elisha Purdy-1740-1820.

A list of the Purdy family found in the family record of Francis and Lucretia Purdy, but no indication of the relationship. It is probable that they are the children of Roger Purdy's father as his appears in the list as indicated.

JACOB GOODWIN

Pioneer in Warren County, Pennsylvania. Here as early as 1796 for he bought a "mount" at John Daniel's Store on the Brokenstraw and paid for it by making 2 ox yokes and giving 2 elk hides.

He was born in 1770 in Concord, N. H. and died 1847 in Brokenstraw. He served in the WAR OF 1812 from Warren County.

He married MARY KINNAN born 1781 in New Jersey and died 1858.

He was a very prominent lumberman, built and owned mills, rafted, lived briefly in Ohio, bought lands for the timber then sold them, became insolvent when a bank draft for timber sold in Cincinnati proved worthless, recovered, died possessed of many acres. The estate was not settled until after the death of MARY GOODWIN.

They had 9 children: I have proof of paternity for seven so far.

This includes the ISAAC GOODWIN for whom you inquire. See deeds below.

On page XXV, Personal Briefs Section of "The History of Warren County" by Schenck, published in 1887 is a biography of JACOB RANSOM GOODWIN Jr.

"Jacob Ransom Goodwin, Pittsfield, was born in Brokenstraw Nov. 8, 1816. He was son of Jacob and Mary Kinnan Goodwin. Mary was born in New Jersey and died in 1858 and Jacob was born in Concord, N. H. and died in 1847. He was married in 1792 and settled in Conewango in 1793. They had a family of 9 children born to them, three of whom are now living -- Hannah -- Polly -- and Jacob R. Jacob Goodwin, Sr. was drafted and served in the War of 1812. He was a millwright by trade. Jacob R. Goodwin, Jr. was married 1851 to Octavia R. Matthews, who was born in Mayfield, Fulton Co., N. Y. in 1823. They have had a family of four sons born to them -- EDGAR; ADELBERT; CURTIS M. (who was married in 1883 to ARVILLA FANCHER by whom he has had two children, PAUL & RUTH O.) and Fred D. Goodwin. OCTAVIA was daughter of ALINAS and CATHERINE (BOVEE) MATTHEWS who came from New York State and settled in Freehold in 1835, where they died, leaving a family of four children."

(Note -- the date 1792 is obviously erroneous. The Census of 1850 shows that MARY KINNAN GOODWIN was born in 1781, so would be but 11 years old in 1792. JACOB GOODWIN could have been in the area as early as 1793 -- a few were, mostly trappers.

The children, as the estate settlement proves them, were:

1. SALLY GOODWIN, born in 1808 (Census of 1850) married JOHN SALMON, marriage date: 16 Oct. 1828 in Youngsville, by JOHN CAMP Esq. from the Warren Gazette, 23 Oct. 1828, Page 3, Col. 1

The Cemetery is across the Brokenstraw from the present BILLSBOROUGH FARM and can only be reached by fording the stream. Hinman was married to MARY GOODWIN by 1859.

3. ISAAC GOODWIN, born in Ohio according to the Census of 1850, in the year 1811. He gave his age as 17 when he joined the Brokenstraw Militia in 1830. (aged 39 in 1850)

He married SALLY ANN COOK aged 37 in 1850, thus born 1813 and in New York State. (The COOK from your Family Records.) May have come in with that branch of COOKS who originated in OTSEGO Co., N. Y. with the GIBSON STRANAHAN FAMILY. Note STRANAHAN as the name of a son. The Stranahan Genealogy may give the answer. "The Joslyn, Fitch, Stranahan Family" published in the eighteen sixties by John S. T. STRANAHAN, Brooklyn, N. Y. (He was known as the father of Greater New York.)

PROOFS

Deed Book A. page 267

29 May 1802 -- James O'Hara and Isaac Craig of Pittsburgh agree with Jacob Goodwin of Warren County, that the said GOODWIN settle on 400 acres of land along the Conewango adjoining Jonathan Baldwin's and remain for five years at the end of which time, O'Hara and CRAIG will receive a land settlement patent and GOODWIN will receive 150 acres off the North side.

In Deed Book B. the above make the same agreement with STEPHEN ROSS and on page 245 on 9 Aug. 1809 ROSS sells his 150 acres to Jacob Goodwin.

Same Book -- same page -- 20 Oct. 1810 GOODWIN sells the 150 acres from ROSS to Daniel Jackson.

Deed Book C. page 150 -- in 1828 -- Jacob Goodwin sold the first Conewango lot to Guy C. Irvine. (It became Irvine's home and remains in the family today.)

Meanwhile the records show many purchases in Brokenstraw etc., largely for timber -- the farm going back to the original owner after the timber is cut. His holdings became quite heavy. The estate was not settled until after Mary's death and it took several years to accomplish it.

Vol. T. page 676 May 30, 1859

WILLIAM PIKE and HANNAH, his wife formerly HANNAH GOODWIN and HINMAN THOMPSON and MARY, his wife, formerly MARY GOODWIN, heirs of JACOB GOODWIN deceased, sell to JACOB RANSOM GOODWIN for $1.00 lands formerly belonging to Jacob Goodwin.

Vol. X. page 746 Sept. 4, 1863

JACOB RANSOM GOODWIN and OCTAVIA his wife and ISAAC GOODWIN and Sally Ann his wife, heirs of JACOB GOODWIN, decd. sell to JAMES GOODWIN for $430.00 fifty acres out of a larger tract formerly the property of JACOB GOODWIN, bounded north by William Page, west by the Pittsfield-Sugar Grove Road; and south by George and William Chapel.

Vol. W. page 669 14 March 1864

ISAAC GOODWIN and SALLY ANN his wife of Pittsfield sell to LEROY L. LOWRY for $1400.00 lands in tract 206, part of the same lands sold by the Holland Company to Jacob Goodwin. Bounded by George and William Chapel on one side.

Vol. 31 page 768 March 15, 1865

LEROY L. LOWRY and MARY E. his wife, sell to SALLY ANN GOODWIN for $1.00 -- 53 and 1/2 acres of land deeded to Leroy Lowry by Isaac Goodwin and wife 14 March 1865. Originally deed says 50 acres, survey shows 54 and 1/2. It abounds lands conveyed to me by A. J. WILCOX, and lands of ISAAC GOODWIN AND OTHER HEIRS OF JACOB GOODWIN.

Deed Book 28 page 653 Sept. 20, 1865

REBECCA DOTY and HUGH DOTY, her husband of Mount Morris, Livingston County, N.Y., the said Rebecca being heir to JACOB GOODWIN deceased, of Pittsfield, Warren Co., Pa. -- sell to JAMES GOODWIN of Pittsfield 50 acres for $1.00 (same boundaries)

There are many deeds in the names of these children. I have given only enough to prove parentage.

There is one interesting Deed in X page 744 dated 3 Sept. 1839 -- The Holland Land Company to JACOB GOODWIN 50 acres for $150.00 part of a larger tract sold to JOHN SALMON which the said SALMON has since deeded to JACOB GOODWIN. Deed entered to clear the estate 14 Oct. 1865.

From the ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA

Robert I de Bruce, a follower of William the Conqueror was rewarded by the gift of many manors, chiefly in Yorkshire, of which Skelton was the principal.

Robert II de Bruce, received from David I, his comrade of the court of Henry I, a grant of the lordship of Annandale.

Robert III de Bruce, siding with David against Stephen at the battle of the Standard, became a Scottish instead of an English baron.

Robert IV m. Isobel, natural dau. of William the Lion.

Robert V m. Isabella, 2nd dau. of David, earl of Huntingdon, niece of the same Scottish king.

Robert VI, claimed the crown of Scotland as son of Isabella, 2nd dau. of David, earl of Huntingdon.

Robert VII, after 1295, assumed the title of lord of Annandale, in his own right and earl of Carrick in the right of his wife, Marjory dau. of Neil, 2nd earl. Toward the end of 1293, he had a safe-conduct from Edward to visit Norway with a dau. Isabella, who m. Erik, king of Norway, the widower of Margaret of Scotland - a fact marking the high standing of the family of Bruce.

Robert VIII, called The Bruce (1274-1329) King of Scotland, was the son of the 7th Robert de Bruce, lord of Annandale in his own right and earl of Carrick in right of his wife Marjory, dau. of Neil, 2nd earl, and thus way of mingled Norman and Celtic blood. His Grandfather, the 6th Robert de Bruce, claimed the crown of Scotland as son of Isabella, 2nd dau. of David earl of Huntingdon; but Balirl, grandson of Margaret, the eldest dau. was preferred by the commissioners of Edward I. The birthplace of The Bruce - perhaps Turnberry, his mother's castle on the coast of Ayr - is not certainly known. His youth is said by an English chronicle to have been passed at the court of Edward I.

3 descendants of David, earl of Huntingdon, bro. of William the Lion - all English barons, though one, Bruce, had large estate in Scotland.

Robert Bruce, son of David's 2nd dau., wife of lord of Annandale; Bruce represented a family in which for more than two centuries the purest Norman blood had flowed.

Samuel Thomasson, resident of Louisa County, Virginia, died 1793 (date indicated by will). First wife was probably a Poindexter.

John Thomasson, pensioner of Revolutionary War (S-6216) stated he was born 1753 one mile from Louisa Court House. John died 1840 (Religious Herald of April 23, 1840) Marriage Bond was issued Dec. 21, 1780 (p. 16 Louisa Marriage Record No. I) for his marriage to Frances Cooke, first wife, married Dec. 23, 1780 by Rev. William Douglas (p. 46 Douglas Registrar by Mae Jones) both of Louisa County. Frances was born 1759 died between 1798 and 1800. John's will was dated July 25, 1838 and recorded April 23, 1840 p. 271 Louisa Will Book No. 10. Names children, among others, a son John P. Thomasson, a daughter Frances Kunkles. The birth of John Poindexter Thomasson, son of John and Frances was recorded as Jan. 31, 1787 by Rev. Douglas (p. 305, Douglas Registrar by Mae Jones) The date here conflicts with date in History of Roane Co., W. Virginia. Douglas date probably correct as he also gives baptismal date as 1788. Marriage Bond was issued on September 20, 1806 (p. 122 Louisa Marriage Record No. I) for John Thomasson Jun. and Nancy Hancock. Nancy was a daughter of Austin Hancock and Ann Unckolls. His will dated Sept. 25, 1846 was recorded November 12, 1846 (p. 446 Louisa Will Book No. 12). His wife Ann was a daughter of Charles and Keziah Nuckolls.

John P. Thomasson was a magistrate in 1819 in Louisa County, Virginia.

Mordicai James Thomasson, 4th child of John and Nancy Hancock Thomasson, was born June 8, 1817 married on Reedy, Jan. 21, 1841 to Miss Susan Rader, See p. 628 History of Roane Co., West Virginia, 1774-1927 by Bishop. BREECE (BREES)

A history of the family beginning with
JAMES BREECE

born in North Carolina in 1781

"James Breece, Sr. and Lucretia Culley, his wife, father and mother of David Breece, Sr., moved from the State of North Carolina with their family to Posey County, Indiana in eighteen nineteen (1819)."

The above memo in the handwriting of David Breece appears on the fly-sheet of the family Bible owned first by David Breece, then by Silas Breece and now in the possession of Howard David Breece, whose address is 1192 E. 65th., Kansas City, Mo.

The following data taken from the family Bible, tombstones in the Breece private graveyard and the personal knowledge of Howard D. Breece, Olive Breece Allyn and Pearl Breece Allyn. An elderly exchange of deeds for real property about 1840 indicates the name was spelled Brees at times.

James Breece stopped one year, 1818, in Sumner County, Tennessee. The first government land bought by James, David and Alpheus Breece was in 1827, 1835, 1837 and 1840 through the land office located at Vincennes, Indiana. This land is now owned by Howard, Olive and Pearl, children of Silas Breece, who have the land patents bearing the names of John Quincy Adams and Andrew Jackson. The land is located near Mt. Vernon, Indiana.

Olive Breece Allyn, 216 S. E. 4th Ave., Delray Beach, Florida
Pearl Breece Allyn, R. R. 2, Mt. Vernon, Indiana

A HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE FISHER FAMILY

According to family tradition, George Fisher, Sr., was born while his parents were on the water, sailing from Germany to America about 1753. We are not certain of his father's given name, but the old German rule was to name the first male child after its father, so we conclude that his name was George. He had two other sons, Henry and John. Of them and their descendants we know nothing. He settled somewhere in Pennsylvania and raised his family.

George married about the year 1774 or 1775 and settled in Washington county, Pennsylvania. To them were born six children, four boys and two girls. Mrs. Fisher died about the year 1788 or 1789. He married again in a few years and moved west, settling in Brown county, Ohio, on the waters of Eagle Creek, seven miles from Ripley on the Ohio River.

He was a man of limited means. He was a blacksmith by trade, the making of guns a specialty. The country was new and teeming with wild animals and some Indians, who occasionally committed terrible depredations such as killing settlers and stealing horses but Mr. Fisher was never molested by them. He settled right in the green wood and put the boys to clearing while he ran his shop. Immigrants came in rapidly and he soon found himself surrounded by friends instead of the Red men.

The fruit of the second marriage was ten children, eight girls and two boys. About the year 1802, the elder children began to marry. They all came with their father to Brown county, Ohio.

Sally, the eldest child married William White, and they moved out on the Big Sandy.

George, the first son, married Hannah Wright. They lived in Brown county, Ohio, until 1829, then moved west, settling in Park county, Indiana, three miles southwest of Rockville.

John, second son, was born March 12, 1782, in Washington county, Pennsylvania, and married Nancy Miller of North Carolina, in Brown county, Ohio, December 8, 1806. He served in the war of 1812.

William, third son married Cynthia Lear. He ran an oil mill on Eagle Creek, Ohio, for several years, then moved west, settling near Rockville, Parke county, Indiana.

Betsy, second daughter, married James Ford. They settled in eastern Indiana.

Jacob, fourth son, married Susan Hoch. They moved west about the year 1824, and settled near Rising Sun, Indiana, on the Ohio River.

This ends a short history of the first children of George Fisher, Sr.

Of the second set of children:

Daniel, married Susan Reeves and settled somewhere in Indiana.

Catherine, eldest daughter, married Tobias Wood. They both died near Beaver Swamps, Indiana.

Mary, married John Robb, and lived near LaFayette, Indiana.

Fred, married Polly Robb. They moved to Illinois and thence to Iowa.

Susan Fisher was born in Brown county, Ohio, April 5, 1798. She married Abraham Higbie in 1817, and some eight or ten years later moved west, down the Ohio River on a small boat, settling in Ripley county, Indiana. Old aunt is still living, talks fluently of old-time incidents and tells of many things that took place eighty or eighty-five years ago. The writer is indebted to her for much of this history. Her mind is clear and strong on incidents of her youth. She is ninety-six years of age and to all appearances will live out the hundred.

Anna Fisher married Joseph Stinson.

Fanny married William Reeves. She lived to an old age and died in Brown county, Ohio, on Eagle Creek.

Abby married William Pickerel. She lived to a good old age and died in Brown county, Ohio.

Nancy married Jacob Hughes. They also lived and died on Eagle creek.

Lyda, the youngest daughter, was not bright.

Thus ends a short sketch of the writer's uncles and aunts.

George Fisher remained on the farm he first bought in Brown county, Ohio, until he died in the fall of 1822, at the ripe old age of eighty years.

John Fisher, second son of George Fisher, Sr., was born March 12, 1782, in Washington county, Pennsylvania. He came west with his father and learned the blacksmith's trade with him. When he reached his majority, he worked Jour work for several years. He married Nancy Miller, of North Carolina. To them were born eight children, six boys and two girls. He settled in Brown county, Ohio, on the hills of Eagle Creek.

He lived there twenty-three years, then sold his farm for six hundred dollars on payments, moved out west in September 1829 and settled in the Sugar Creek bottoms on the north eastern corner of Parke county, Ind.

The country was a wilderness; quite a number of squatters, but no farms, the woods were full of wild animals such as deer, some bear, hundreds of turkeys, wild cats, porcupines, etc., and a few Indians. Here the family went through the hardships of pioneer life. Hard work and hard living was the rule.

Jacob, the eldest son, was born April 20, 1808, and married Nancy Newell, August 20, 1829, in Brown county, Ohio, and moved west with his father in the spring following. He settled in the green woods four miles southwest of Rockville.

James Miller, second son was born October 26, 1809, and married Elizabeth Montgomery, December 22, 1831, in Parke county, Ind.

Polly, eldest daughter, was born January 23, 1812, and was married to Robert D. Norwood, of Alabama, October 25, 1831, in Parke county, Indiana.

Sally, second daughter, was born September 16, 1814, and was married to Alexander Myers of North Carolina, June 1, 1837, in Parke county, Indiana.

Daniel, third son was born December 18, 1816, and married Elizabeth J. Welch, June 18, 1840.

Carey Camel, the fourth son, was born March 5, 1819 and married Elizabeth Allen, October __, 1842.

Alfred, fifth son, was born April 12, 1822 and married Elizabeth Allen, June 4, 1846, in Fountain county, Indiana.

John, sixth son, was born August 8, 1824 and married Elizabeth Goodon, October 13, 1847, in Fountain county.

Thus ends a short sketch of the births and marriages of the children of John Fisher, Senior.

Alfred Fisher, the fifth son of John Fisher, Sr., married Elizabeth Allen, June 4, 1846. To them were born nine children. Three died in infancy, six were raised to womanhood and manhood.

Lucinda was born December 8, 1847, and was married to A. C. Sherman, October 16, 1866.

Nancy E. was born March 28, 1850, and was married to D. G. Smith, December 23, 1868.

Clara E. was born January 27, 1854.

Louisa Manda was born May 6, 1856, and was married to Benjamin H. Logan, May 23, 1878.

Laura A. was born November 4, 1860 and was married to J. P. Mahorney September 6, 1883. She died September 19, 1886.

John DeWitt was born January 8, 1864 and married to Mattie Hobson, October 27, 1886.

Thus ends a short sketch of the descendants of George Fisher, Sr., in a period of one hundred and forty years. We cannot say that it is all correct but it is nearly so.

Compiled by Alfred Fisher. Waveland, Indiana, 1894.

at her disposal.

GUY C. IRVINE and Allied Lines in research

In 1911 Rachel Bachop, grand-daughter of GUY C. IRVINE evidently began a research into the family of her grand-father. How far she proceeded is not known. Some letters, many with the signature page gone, and all in a very frail state were loaned to Mr. Weatherby of Russell and he loaned them to the Warren County Historical Society for copying.

The information -- partly in the handwriting of Rachel Bachop and partly in the handwriting of many oldsters resolves itself as follows:

THOMAS IRVINE says: 14 June 1911

JOHN IRVINE, father of GUY C. IRVINE married 3 times.

By #1 he had
GARLAND IRVINE
SAMUEL IRVINE
JOHN IRVINE
WILLIAM IRVINE

By #2 he had
JAMES IRVINE
GEORGE IRVINE
WELSH IRVINE

By #3 he had
ANDREW IRVINE His mother was Mary Fullerton - wife #3
GUY C. IRVINE Guy C. b. 15 Dec. 1792 near Warrior Run, Northumberland Co.
ROSANNA IRVINE d. 24 Aug. 1868, "The Greatest Lumberman of them all".

Thomas says Guy's mother outlived her husband and married a 2nd time --
WILLIAM HAMILTON of Livingston, Genessee Co., N.Y.

He says Guy's wife was Mary Cotton

He also says there may have been more children than that -- but that is all he can recall at the moment.

2. Letter in the handwriting of an aged person -- a woman

Discloses that she is a descendant of John Irvine. Says she has heard that he had twenty odd children but can name no more than Thomas did. John was buried near WARRIOR'S RUN in NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY. JOHN'S 2nd wife was MARY FULLERTON. As she looks at TOM'S list again, seems as though there was a son, BENJAMIN F., also, and Alexander. And there were more girls she feels sure, Jane and Merry and Cathleen and one married a Watt. Thinks the most of the children were by wife #2.

The Irvines were connected with the WYNNs. "I have heard the story of an ELIZA IRVINE who married Mr. WYNN. They had a son THOMAS who died about nine. The Indians strung him up by the thumbs and the shock killed him. HETTY WYNN married JAMES IRVINE who was half brother to your grandfather (Guy C.). Hetty was aunt, I think, to Lucinda Wynn Cotton." I am sorry I cannot remember clearly but I am very old and names are confused to me now and there were so many Irvines and so many Wyrns and so many children that I cannot separate them now".

Letter 3 -- "James Irvine was an older half brother of Guy. I think he was the first to come into the country and Guy followed soon after. James came a year or so after the War of 1812 and Guy about 1817. James married HETTY WYNN whose father was Thomas WYNN. THOMAS was an early pioneer and had a very large family.

James and Hetty lived just below Wrightsville where Charles Wynn lives now. (after this in Rachel Bachop's handwriting is the notation CHARLES WYNN died 1912.) They had a large family of which I can only recall these names:

1. Margaret Irvine born about 1808 who married her half cousin SAMUEL IRVINE. Samuel and Margaret had Martin, Benjamin, Mary, Charley, Tom and others. Tom is still living, suggest you ask him what he knows about the family.

2. John -- drowned aged about 18
3. Mary -- think she married an Irvine
4. James -- died in the Civil War
5. A daughter who was Charlie Wynn's mother.

Letter 4 -- concerns COTTON FAMILY

JAMES COTTON is the first I know of our COTTON line. (For Cotton Ancestry see Beaver Co., Pa.)

He was born in Beaver County in 1772. You can find his exact dates on his tombstone in Wrightsville. I do not have them here and am answering you from memory. JAMES COTTON was a soldier of the War of 1812 and came to Warren County prior to 1819. He was associated in lumbering with Guy C. Irvine, the Weatherby's, the Durlins and Goodwins and other families in that vicinity. James died about 1847.

He married MRS. ISABELLE (SANFORD) ANDERSON -- I should have spelled her maiden name SANDFORD. She was a widow with two children, JOSEPH ANDERSON and ISABELLA, I think her name was, at any rate she married ROBERT ALLEN so you could find out. The children of JAMES and ISABELLA were

1. JOHN COTTON who married LUCINDA WYNN. I don't know which of the WYNN boys was her father, but there was an old Mr. THOMAS WYNN. JOHN died before his father did leaving his wife with four or five small children. Lucinda then married SHELDON ALLEN who was a brother of the above ROBERT ALLEN and she had some children by him.
2. MARY COTTON -- glad to have the date of birth you gave -- 4 March 1806 and to have the date of her marriage to GUY C. IRVINE -- 5 Feb. 1822. Your grandfather was as handsome a man as one could meet. I recall that they called the log cabin they built "CASTLE COMFORT".
3. Rachel Cotton married (1) Rufus Weatherby and then (2) Caleb Weatherby. James Cotton died at her house. He was lumbering in Pine Grove when he died. He was taken to Lottsville for burial and lies beside ISABEL.
4. Washington Cotton. He married a Pressly girl. I think he died fairly young. They had a son PRESSLY COTTON who lived on the old place in Freehold. You had better check this -- Washington might have belonged to JOHN COTTON. I have no family notes here and can't be sure. I am quite sure he was John's son, as I think about it. Pressly had a son, Dr. Clyde E. Cotton.

ANDERSON

Joseph and Isabelle (Sandford) Anderson were married in Inskillen, Ireland. They started to America and Joseph died at sea. Isabelle came on to Beaver, Penna. with her two children. I think some of Joseph's relatives were in the party.

Joseph Anderson Jr. married Margaret McGaffick, or some such name at Beaver. He was, remember, a half brother of your mother. (Mary Cotton Irvine)

Isabell Anderson married ROBERT ALLEN and they had Eliza, Erwin, Edward and possibly others.

(Note: F.A.S.F. -- on Rachel Anderson, aged 13, born in Ohio lived in the family of Robert and Isabell Allen in 1850. Child of Joseph??? Warren County Hist. Soc. note.)

WEATHERBY

RUFUS Weatherby and Rachel Cotton his wife had Betsey Weatherby who married S. D. Wetmore.
Mary who never married
Eliza Isabel --
Almira

Caleb Weatherby and Rachel (Cotton) had Martha
William

In one place this letter says Eliza Isabel Weatherby married Frank Henry. Down below is this, ELIZA HAZZARD had Frank R. Hazzard. After she lost her husband she married STEPHEN CARVER. He legally adopted FRANK, so Frank Hazzard is Frank Hazzard Carver.

(the connection of this Hazzard note is not clear.)

Item 5 -- clipping dated 22 April 1910

Mrs. FRANCES H. E. IRVINE died Friday aged 94 - 11-27

She was born in LONDON, ENGLAND on 25 April 1815

Married at LONGBOTTOM, PENNA.- RUFUS WEATHERBY by Rev. Montague

Item 6 -- Small paper saying MARY COTTON was born 4 March 1806 in Beaver County and died 27 July 1877 in Pine Grove. (handwriting of Rachel Bachop)

Item 7 -- GUY C. IRVINE and MARY COTTON, his wife had:

1. RUFUS WEATHERBY IRVINE born 21 April 1823, died Aug. 1897
married FRANCES H. E. KELLER (Fanny Keller) no ch'n.
2. Rachel R. Irvine born. 1827 sic - 9 Nov. 1825 married Dr. William Bachop son of John and Mary Mac Lachlan Bachop.
He was born 18 Jan. but can't recall the year. He died 9 Sept. 1878.
3. Andrew Jackson Irvine married (1) Louesa Patterson who died 1863 born. 6 Oct. 1827 married (2) Elizabeth Louisa Briggs, daut. of William and Loretta (Badger) Briggs.
4. George W. Irvine

Written at the bottom of page, different handwriting is

5. James Irvine's wife was Lydia Cook -- no indication as to identity of this James Irvine.
He was a son born 5 Nov. 1824, died 2 Mar. 1876

ANDREW JACKSON IRVINE and Louisa Patterson had

1. Letitia Irvine who married SOLON BRIGGS. They had Pearl and Bessie. Pearl married a CARR.

ANDREW JACKSON IRVINE and Elizabeth Louiza Briggs had

2. Marian Irvine married MILFORD NOBBS
3. Louisa Irvine married ALFRED JOHNSON of Russell.
4. Birdie -- died young
5. William Irvine married Edith Brooks
6. Nellie -- died young
7. Elizabeth born 8 June 1884, married 7 Dec. 1903 EARL THOMAS HALL
8. John ??

After Jackson Irvine died Elizabeth married HENRY BAILEY

(The above were just pencilled notes in which this granddaughter of Guy C. was feeling her way -- may be and probably are inaccurate. Need checking against county records.)

CENSUS 1850 Pine Grove

Guy C. Irvine aged 47 born Penna., lumberman (note this would make him born 1803 but he must have been older, as he was drafted into the War of 1812 in 1814 -- he received a bounty for his brief service and he testified as to the service of several other men -- service was in Northumberland Co. Papers in the Clemons Collection)

Polly Irvine aged 44 born Penna.

Rufus Weatherby Irvine aged 27 b. Penna., Lumberman

Rachel Irvine aged 25 born Penna.

George W. Irvine aged 14 born Penna., Lumberman

REVOLUTIONARY SERVICE OF JUSTICE CHARLES WELLS 1778-1788

Charles Wells was Justice for Ohio Co. Virginia May 1778-1788

Charles Wells was delegate to Virginia Assembly 1792-1798

Charles Wells served four terms in Congress between 1789-1810

This data is collected from Wheeling Court Records, Richmond Library Records and Newton's History of the Pan Handle.

"The Commission of Peace" was composed of the County Justices who formed the early Courts, and during the Revolution were responsible to the Governor for the nomination of Captains and Lieutenants to command the County Militia".

Charles Wells with his brothers Absalom, Nicholas, John, Amon, William and Caleb settled in Ohio County, Virginia with the earliest settlers about 1772-1775. These brothers were the ancestor of the various Wells families in the Ohio Valley. Most of the brothers went to Tyler County after the formation of that county. These families founded the town of Wellsburg, then in Ohio County but now of Brook County, West Virginia.

In the book entitled "The Navigator" published in 1824 there is much mention of the family of Charles Wells. About 1810 Charles Wells came from Wellsburg and settled what is now Sistersville, W. Va., but was first known as Wells Landing. Here he died and was buried in 1815. He was twice married and the father of 22 children; 10 by the first and 12 by the second. (See brochure published by Sistersville Chamber of Commerce for detailed information).

AFFIDAVIT

State of Kansas S.S.
County of Sedgwick

Prince E. McGuyre, his wife Ruth C. McGuyre, and her mother, Cecelia A. Ellenwood, each being first duly sworn, deposes and says that the foregoing facts were obtained by them from the gravestones marking the graves of the above named deceased persons, which graves are located in the private family cemetery, known as the Richardson Family Cemetery, on Mount Desert Island in the State of Maine. That they copied this information on Thursday, August 16, 1956. That to find this cemetery they took the Beech Hill road, where it joins the Pretty Marsh - Somesville Road, and drove 1 9/10 miles. At this point a dirt road led to the west. That they went down this road 1/4 mile and found the cemetery on the north side of the road. That the graves of Benjamin Atherton, Lorenzo Atherton, and the unmarked tombstone, which is presumed to be that of Benjamin's wife, Nancy, were found close to the road, that is, on the south edge of the cemetery, at about the middle portion of the cemetery from east to west. That the inscriptions are on the west face of the stones. That the Richardson graves are elsewhere in this same cemetery. That these affiants are certain that the names and dates above shown were accurately copied. That these affiants took several photographs of the Atherton gravestones, particularly that of Benjamin Atherton.

Preserved to us by the valor

:- THIS CERTIFIES that DAVID BUNKER :-

Enlisted from La Salle County, Illinois, on the 9th day of August, 1862 to serve three years or during the war, and was mustered into the United States service at Ottawa, Ill., on the 27th day of August, 1862, as Sergeant of Captain Samuel M. Heslet's Company "C", 104th REGIMENT ILLINOIS VOLUNTEER INFANTRY, Colonel Absalom B. Moore commanding.

This regiment was recruited in La Salle County, and was organized at Ottawa, in August, 1862. It proceeded immediately to Louisville, Ky., where it was properly uniformed and armed, after which it was assigned to Dumont's Division of Buell's Army, and remained on duty in that vicinity for some time. When General Buell commenced his march in pursuit of Bragg, the command occupied the left of the army. It participated in the Kentucky Campaign of that fall, and later was stationed at Hartsville, Tenn., where it was attacked December 6, 1862, by a confederate brigade under General John Morgan, which was its first baptism of fire, and during which the regiment sustained a loss of forty-six killed and mortally wounded, the force of cavalry and a section of light artillery. In addition to the loss by death above mentioned, there were one hundred and ten others wounded and five hundred and sixty-eight captured, but these captured were soon afterward paroled and went to Camp Douglas, Chicago, to await exchange. After this had been accomplished, in the spring of 1863, the regiment rejoined the Army of the Cumberland, and was assigned to the 1st Brigade, 2nd Division, 14th Corps, later taking part in the following engagements, viz.: Hoover's Gap, Elk River, Tenn.; Chickamauga, Ga.; Lookout Mountain, Mission Ridge, Tenn.; Buzzard Roost or Tunnel Hill, Resaca, Rome, Dallas or New Hope Church, Kenesaw Mountain, Chattahoochie River, Peach Tree Creek Utoy Creek, Siege of Atlanta, Jonesboro, March to the Sea, Savannah, Ga.; Campaign of the Carolinas, including Minnsboro, S. C.; and Bentonville, N.C., and a number of minor engagements. After Johnston's surrender to Sherman at Bennett House, N.C., the command marched by way of Richmond, Va., to Washington, D.C., where it took part in the Grand Review May 24, 1865.

The said David Bunker was promoted to First Sergeant and Commissioned First Lieutenant of his Company, July 20, 1864, for brave and meritorious service.

He was severely wounded at the battle of Chickamauga, Ga., by gunshot in abdomen, and was confined in hospital at Nashville, Tenn., for one month, then transferred to hospital at Louisville, Ky., rejoining his regiment for duty, at Chattanooga, Tenn. May 14, 1864, he was wounded a second time, at the battle of Resaca, Ga. by gunshot in small of back, where the ball still remains in his body. He was sent to hospital at Chattanooga, thence to Nashville, Tenn., Louisville, Ky., and Springfield, Ill., from where he reported to his regiment at Louisville, Ky., and remained there on duty as Ward Master until discharged from the service.

He was faithful in the discharge of every duty, participated in all the engagements of his regiment, until after the battle of Resaca, Ga., and rendered gallant and meritorious service at all times.

He received an HONORABLE DISCHARGE at Louisville, Ky., on the 6th day of June, 1865, by reason of close of the war.

He is the son of Slocum H. and Matilda Wood-Bunker, and was born at Cardington, Morrow County, Ohio, on the 7th of March, 1830. He was united in marriage to Susan J. Spencer, at Marshall, Michigan, May 14, 1854, from this union were born seven children, five of whom are living, viz.; Louia A., Caroline E., - wife of Jacob Keilman; Julia, - wife of F. W. Weber; Alice, - wife of F. M. Ross; and Charles D.

He is a member of Washington Post, No. 12, Department of Kansas, Grand Army of the Republic.

These facts are thus recorded and preserved for the benefit of all those who may be interested.

Historian

Franklin, Ind., August 26th, 1897.

Mr. John Marshall,
Howard, Kans.

My dear Sir:-

Your letter of 21st inst., has just been received, and is of much interest to me. Glad to find some one of my kindred who is especially interested in family history. It is my great regret that I did not awake to the importance of the matter a few years earlier. The most valuable "connecting link" between the present and the past was your grandfather, John Hanks Marshall, who died Mch. 30, 1892. I was pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Peru, Ind., from 1883 to 1889, and visited him in 1884, I think. He was then in excellent health, with all his faculties in fine condition. I spoke of past family history, and he talked quite fully, but I made no notes, and soon forgot most that he had related. When I visited Logansport a year ago last June I could only gather the recollections of his conversations which were retained by his wife and her children. Some of these I have since found to be traditions. The other sources of my information are Mrs. Martha L. Gordon, a sister of my father and of your grandfather, and my own father. Aunt Martha was living with her daughter, Mrs. Ann Curry, near Pawnee City, Pawnee Co., Neb., when I heard last from her. She is now 84, feeble, and her memory is not at all accurate. My father, Randolph V. Marshall, is living at Des Moines, Iowa. His address, 1315 University Avenue. He is almost 76 years old. He was born about four months after his father's death, and consequently knows far less of the Marshall's than his brother John Hanks knew. However, I have sifted them all with questions of every variety, and will give you the result of my inquiries, hoping that you may not only find some satisfaction therein, but that you may possibly give me some suggestions as to further inquiries. I would like to get still better and more complete records if possible.

The line begins with Humphrey Marshall, who lived in Salisbury, N. C., during, or immediately following the Revolutionary War. Nothing definite is known of him. It is the tradition through Aunt Martha and Aunt Margaret (widow of John Hanks M.) that he was an immigrant from Scotland. The name of his wife has been forgotten. This Humphrey Marshall had several children, the order of their birth being at present unknown to me. They are designated by numbers to facilitate reference.

1. Elizabeth Ann, married — Slaughter, lived in Jackson, Miss.
2. Mary, or "Polly" married _____ Locke; moved to Kentucky early in this century, thence to Northern Ohio, near Toledo. (Query: Was she a progenitor of "Petroleum V. Nasby" Locke?)
3. A son, who also moved to Ohio, after a brief sojourn in Kentucky. (He had a son Hubbard who lived near Lafayette, Ind., dying in 188___. A son of this Hubbard spent a night with Uncle John, (your grandfather) several years ago, and related incidents that clearly established the relationship.)
4. Frank, lived and died in Salisbury, N. C. Reported to have been a U. S. Paymaster in war of 1812. Also was said to have been clerk of court in Salisbury. Died possessed of quite an estate, which, as he was a bachelor, was apportioned among his brothers and sisters. Estate was settled by _____ Slaughter, husband of Elizabeth. The son of the Lafayette Hubbard referred to above told John Hanks his grandfather received $1200 as his part of the estate. This estate was settled soon after 1831. (This date fixed by year of Aunt Martha Gordon's marriage. The word was sent to her a year or so after, as one of the children of Frank's deceased brother. Aunt Margaret says the rest of the children desired John Hanks to go after the part falling to them: but she objected to his going, as the distance was so great, travel so tedious, and danger from robbers haunted her. They also reasoned that the sum would not be of moment when divided among eight or ten heirs. So it was never claimed. I wrote Clerk of Court Salisbury, N. C. concerning this estate. Says there is no record of any will, or any administrator's settlement, of estate belonging to any Marshall from 1800 to 1835. It is possible that the settlement was made from Jackson, Miss.

5. Hubbard, who was my grandfather and your great grandfather. He was born probably before 1780, and he married Ruth Hanks, who was born in 1782. They lived in Montgomery County, Kentucky, at the opening of this century, though where they married, and the date, is not known. They lived in Kentucky till fall of 1811, then removed to Martin Co., Ind., arriving at home of Grandmother Ruth's brother, Peter Hanks. At time of their arrival he was absent with General Harrison, and while the families were still living together Peter Hanks was killed in battle of Tippecanoe. The distress of his widow was so great that it impressed the event on mind of your grandfather, John Hanks Marshall, so that he frequently spoke of it. Hubbard Marshall died of milk-sick in fall of 1821. His widow Ruth took her large family of children and removed to the vicinity of Princeton, Gibson County, Ind., to be near another one of her brothers -- William Hanks, a hard Shell Baptist preacher. Hubbard and Ruth Marshall had twelve children. I can give you the names in order, but the dates of birth, etc., are in most cases lost. It seems no family Bible, or other record has been preserved. Ruth Marshall died at home of my father, R. V. Marshall, in Murphysboro, Ill., Sep. 25, 1844, aged 62 years. Now as to their children.

1. Saylor, married Vance Jones.

2. Frank, killed by being thrown from a horse when 12 years of age.

3. Nancy, died at same time as her father, fall of 1821, probably aged 21.

4. John Hanks M., born near Winchester, in Montgomery Co., Ky., March 4, 1804, died near Logansport, Ind., March 30, 1892. He married first, March 10, 1831, Anna Bell, who died Dec. 24, 1831. By her he had one son, Humphrey. He married second, Jan. 22, 1833, Margaret Kendall, by whom he had 11 children. You are more fully informed as to these children than I am, though I have a list of their births, marriages, etc.

5. Mary, married Thomas Potter.

6. Sarah, married John Garrison.

7. Salena, married James W. Anderson. A son of Salena Anderson named Randolph W. Anderson resides at Winfield, Kansas. He is about 55, and a most excellent man.

8. Martha L. born Martin Co., Ind., June 23, 1813, married James Gordon, at Bloomington, Ind., Dec. 15, 1831, Gordon dies in Ind. in 1880. They had a large family, whose names I also have, but will not take time to write them off. Aunt Martha was living last August.

9. Humphrey, died in childhood.

The first of these is the fact that the United States is a young nation, and that its history is a history of growth and expansion. The second is the fact that the United States is a nation of immigrants, and that its history is a history of the struggle for the rights of these immigrants. The third is the fact that the United States is a nation of free men, and that its history is a history of the struggle for the rights of these free men.

10. William B., also died young.

11. Hubbard L., a physician and New Light preacher, married, and lived in Jefferson County, Mo. Was shot by Union soldiers during the war. (By strange coincidence I received a couple of days ago a letter from his son H. F. Marshall, from Willows, Cal., in reply to one I wrote over a year ago to his sister, Mrs. Laura Newsom, making inquiry about family history. Laura died Nov. 15, 1891. I hope to get particulars regarding Uncle Hubbard's life and death from this cousin, though his letter indicates a man of very poor education. Says he has been ranching in Cal. for ten years.)

12. Randolph V., born in Princeton, Ind., Dec. 24, 1821. Married Elizabeth Frances Gray, near Bloomington, Ind., July 7, 1841. Teacher by profession. He and his wife are now living at Des Moines, Iowa. They have had 12 children born, five of whom grew to maturity. Three are still living; Andrew H., and Wilbur R., at Des Moines, Ia., and myself. I was their seventh child.

From the foregoing you will be able to extract most that will be valuable for your personal record. There are several histories of the Marshall family published. I have perhaps the best one, written by W. M. Paxton, an attorney of Platte City, Mo. It deals with the descendants of Thomas Marshall, of Westmoreland, Va. I wrote Mr. Paxton giving your genealogy as above. He addressed me in reply, "Dear Kinsman", and hails me as one of the family. Could not indicate the exact connection however. Considers the name Humphrey as a clue -- you notice how it has come down regularly. The name is even more prominent in our family than in the Kentucky family which he traces. This seems to have been the family name of the original mother's people in Scotland. But our Humphrey the first was born as early as any other Humphrey of whom I can get any account as yet. And so for us he is the head of the house. There is evidently a mixing up of location and occupations in the traditions about Frank Marshall which I obtained from Aunts Martha and Margaret. I wrote to Salisbury, N. C., where he was said to have been Clerk of Court and to have died. The Clerk there assured me no such man had ever been clerk of any court in that county. My Congressman had the War Department at Washington look into the Statement as to his having been a U. S. Paymaster and finds that that was a mistake - no such name being on record in either U. S. or Volunteer service. When time permits, I expect to write the Adjutant General of Virginia and of North Carolina and see if the State Records show any such military service. He may have been clerk in some other county. If he was as long-lived as the rest of the Marshalls he may have died at his sister's home in Jackson, Miss., from which place his estate seems to have been settled. I have made no inquiries there. Am hoping to go over to Winchester, Ky., some time this fall or winter, to look up the county records. I suspect the marriage of Hubbard Marshall and Ruth Hanks took place there, as all their children before Martha were born in Kentucky. As John Hanks M. was born in March 1804, and was their fourth child, they must have been married about 1798, or when Ruth was 16 or 18 years of age.

Another clue which I have thought of following would be to find the where-about's of that son of the Hubbard who used to live near Lafayette, Ind. He probably would be able to tell where his grandfather got the share of Frank's estate from. But I have mourned much the last year that I did not look into this matter a few years ago. In '82 or '83 your grandfather, Aunt Martha Gordon and my father were together, or at least Aunt Martha visited them both, and I saw her several times. Her memory would then have been much more helpful than now. Your grandfather, as a boy, was taken with his parents on a visit to the relatives in North Carolina. After the death of his father in 1821 he became his mother's main dependence, and as a frontier trader made various horse-selling trips back to Lexington, Ky. But the particulars of these days have slipped with him into the unseen.

If your father has imparted to you any thing that will add to my fund of information I will be greatly obliged to you for its transmission. And any particulars as to your brothers or sisters and their families (if any) will be much appreciated. I have no intention of publishing a book or genealogical table, but I intend to put what material I gather, into such shape that my own five children may have it clearly before them.

Peter Hanks, father of Ruth, is said to have been a soldier of the revolution from Virginia or Maryland.

Any questions which may be suggested by above, which you may lay before me, will be answered as best I can. Thanking you for the opportunity of communicating with you, and wishing you success in things temporal and spiritual, I remain,

Yours very cordially,
Leon B. Marshall

P.S. Excuse my use of the typewriter. It enables me to write more speedily and with less fatigue. By the way, as you are a lawyer, suppose you write Clerk of Court, Jackson, Miss., and inquire as to whether any estate of Frank Marshall was settled there, either under will or by administrator between 1830 and 1840. If so who were named as heirs, also whether anything appears in the record to show age or residence of Frank Marshall. Slaughter was executor or administrator,

Mr. John Marshall,
Howard, Kans.

My dear Sir:-

Yours of the 30th ult. was duly received. Am sorry your biographical explorations in the direction of Jackson, Miss., were unavailing. I also have failed to add anything definite to the positive information I gave you last summer. The traditions obtained at Logansport are difficult to verify. I wrote to Mt. Sterling, county seat of Montgomery Co., Ky., also to Winchester, near which place your grandfather was born, asking for record of the marriage of Hubbard Marshall and Ruth Hanks. The records of Montgomery Co. were burnt during the war. Nothing was learned at Winchester. The clerk thought it possible that between 1770 and 1800 parties marrying in that vicinity might have obtained license at Lexington. I did not write there.

Just before holidays I visited my father at Des Moines. He insists that his mother, Ruth Hanks, was born in Salisbury, N. C., as he placed the record of her birth, etc., in his own family Bible while she was making her home with him. He also thinks she was married there. Says that after death of her husband and little girl in early fall of 1821, she removed from Martin Co., Ind., to Princeton, Ind., where father was born Dec. 24, 1821. Later she bought a farm about six miles East of Princeton, sold several years afterward to one Maxwell. Her father, Peter Hanks, was then an old man, and made his home part of the time with her, and part of the time with her sister, Mrs. Steve Fisher, who lived in same neighborhood. Peter Hanks was a revolutionary soldier. He lived to be 93 years of age, and died at home of Mrs. Fisher. Father remembers him quite well -- was rather tall and stately, and always walked with a tall staff instead of cane. Aunt Martha Gordon still lives but is very feeble. She is now in her 85th year. I intend writing her soon, and will put a few more questions to her in hope of eliciting further light, but I fear there is not much hope.

It seems that the only clew (sic) left is to find the son of Hubbard Marshall who lived near Lafayette, Indiana, until five or six years ago. It might be that some of his family -- the Ohio branch of our family, have kept the record. In this day when family histories are being worked up, it is possible someone of his line may have printed something obtainable. But I do not know how to proceed to find him. Have intended making inquiries of any Lafayette man I can find, and may soon get an opportunity. If I make any interesting discoveries rest assured I will write you. And should you be so fortunate, do not forget me. It has given me much pleasure to have made your acquaintance by mail, and I hope we may not altogether cease communication.

Cordially yours,
Leon P. Marshall

John W. Marshall, born April 11, 1858, died March 25, 1931, Topeka, Kansas

To my dear children and grand children.

At the repeated earnest request of your mother and grandmother, I write this that you may know a little of the story of my life.

I was born on the Wabash bottom near Rock Creek in Carroll county, Indiana. The house in which I was born has long since been torn down. I do not know the exact spot on which it stood.

My father while in Indiana was a tenant farmer and rarely lived longer than two years in any one place. That made the family move often which accounts for the large number of district or common schools attended by me before we moved to Kansas.

I had a sister, born in Carroll county Indiana on (). She died in July 1876 and is buried at Burrows in Carroll county, Ind. There is a stone at her grave. Her name was Juniata Isabel. We were very close to each other. Her death was a great loss to me. I have been told by those who ought to know that we often went to and returned from school hand in hand.

My earliest definite recollection is that of seeing my father go to the army to fight in the Civil War. That was in 1862. He returned in 1865. He was in the army almost three years and came back broken in health with weakened eye sight. He never recovered his eye sight, and when he died he was almost blind. He died in 1901 at the age of seventy one years and is buried at Peru, Ind. A stone marks his grave. I have a history of the regiment in which he served during the Civil War. He was married three times, but he never had any children except myself and my sister. He was always a poor man. He could read and write but beyond that he was uneducated.

We lived in a cabin in the woods where my father went to the army. We moved to the home of my mothers parents and lived there during the war. That fall I started to school. I was then four years old but could read before I commenced going to school. My mother taught me to read. My first school was at Underhill, on the Wabash bottom about a mile and a quarter away from my grandparents home. I was not big nor strong enough to walk when it was muddy or when snow was on the ground. I was often carried to school by two young women; one of them, Belle Wharton, died at Columbus, Kans. some years ago; the other one, Priscilla Groninger, lives at Lafayette, Ind. During the war, I also went to school at Martin's school house and at Burrows. Martin's school house was about a mile and a half away and all the way through heavy woods. Dogwood was in bloom when I started to that school. I did not know the way. My mother took me and broke down dogwood limbs to mark the way to come back. At the close of the war when my father returned, we moved. I then went to school at Yosts school house. We moved again and I went to school at the Stone school house. Again we moved, and I went to Western school house. To this school house, I have gone for a number of picnics in recent years. Another move and I went to school at the Clinton school house. Here I was grossly mistreated principally because I, a boy eleven years old was in classes with young men and young women and had my lessons as well or better than they had theirs.

In September 1870 we started for Kansas in a covered wagon. I walked practically all the way. We reached Kansas early in November and stopped at New Lancaster in Miami county, Kans. We stayed there until the last of Feb. 1871 when we started of what is now Elk county. We got onto the claim which father had taken on March 1, 1871. Father had left the family at New Lancaster and had gone to near where Grenola now is, had located his claim and had assembled logs for building a cabin. A post office was established and was called Greenfield. A subscription school was started there that spring. I attended it. I there formed friendships which have been life long. I lived there until my mother died on April 5, 1875. She is buried near Grenola. Her grave is not marked and I can not find it.

In Kansas, I attended school at Greenfield, two different school houses, at Star, at Independent school house at Elk Falls, and at Kansas State University. I also attended several teachers normal institutes at Elk Falls and at Howard, each of which lasted for one month and each of which was a good school.

When my mother died I left home and returned to Indiana. I remained there until the fall of 1877 when I returned to my old home neighborhood in Kans. While in Indiana I worked on farms as a hired farm hand doing all kinds of farm work. I began teaching school in 1878 when I was twenty years old. My first school was at Mound Branch about six miles southwest of Howard, Kans. Your mother and grandmother was one of the scholars. My next school was at the Independent school house near Grenola. This school house was across the road from where our cabin had stood. My next school was at Greenfield; the next at Baner, a mile west of Howard, and the last was in Howard. During all this time, I was studying outside of school hours.

I studied law with B. L. Brush commencing at Grenola and ending at Howard. He moved from Grenola to Howard because he had been elected county attorney. He is dead and is buried at Howard. There is a stone at his grave. I was admitted to the bar in June 1883 but did not begin the practice of law in earnest until 1885.

In Nov. 1882 your mother and grandmother and I were married. We went to Howard at once to live and lived there continuously until in 1904 where we moved to Winfield, Kans. From there we moved to Topeka where we have continued to live until the present time. Your mother and grandmother has been a good woman, a true wife, and a loving mother and grandmother. She deserves everything you can give her, love, veneration, respect, obedience, sympathy and care. Roy, Maud, Ralph and Clad were born in the little house to which we went when we were first married. It is still standing.

I have held a number of official positions. I can not give their exact dates nor the duration of the time of occupancy. The first official position I occupied was that of city clerk of the city of Howard. That was about 1884. The next was deputy clerk of the district court of Elk county. That was in about 1884 to 1886. Next I was elected mayor of Howard in about 1887. I was elected mayor while I was away from home and did not know anything about it until I returned home. The next position was that of councilman of the city of Howard. I resigned from that position before my term was out because the remainder of the council determined to do a thing I thought was not right. The next official position given to me was that of city attorney of the city of Howard. I held that position for a number of years, probably fifteen. In 1894 I was elected county attorney of Elk county and was re-elected in 1896. After moving to Winfield, I was appointed city attorney of that city and served as such until we moved to Topeka. In 1906 or 1907 I was appointed special assistant attorney general for Cowley county. In 1906 I became one of the attorneys for the Kans. State Temperance Union. It was in that position that I did the best work of my life and during that time was in constant danger on account of the work I was doing. Following this statement is a copy of an article published in the Kans. Issue, the paper published by the Kans. State Temp. Union. That article tells the story of my work for that organization better than I can tell it. In 1908 I was appointed assistant attorney general of Kans. by Fred S. Jackson and served until 1912 where I was appointed attorney for the board of railroad commissioners and served in that capacity until in 1914. In that year I was elected justice of the supreme court of Kans. and have served the state in that capacity continuously since that time. One position of the very highest honor held by me on four different occasions, one in 1916, one in 1920, one in 1924 and one in 1928 has been that of delegate to the Gen. Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. I was highly honored by each of those conferences by being placed on the committee on judiciary. I have always been a regular attendant at church and Sunday school. My education has been limited but it has been greatly augmented by the principles taught in church and Sunday school and which have become part of my life. This statement must not be left without more being said about my mother. She was a good Christian woman loved and respected by every person who knew her. She had a good common school education. She was a farmer's daughter and a farmer's wife and was earnest and hard working. She was ambitious for me and saw that I regularly attended school, Sunday school and church. She was a loving mother. She gave her life at thirty-five years of age to make a home on the prairie. She has been gone now fifty-four years. I hope to meet her in the hereafter.

My father's people have become dwellers of the city. My mother's people all live on the farm or in farming communities.

Notes of Explanation

The Bible Record of the Springfield Anderson family was secured from Mrs. Lucile Paschall of Amarilla, Tex. The Anderson family lived in Hawkins Co. Tenn. at one time. Their Daughter Martha married Richard Wilson, the son of Samuel and Mary (Ingram) Wilson of Hawkins Co. Tenn. Tradition, they were cousins. They had two children, Mary Jane and George Anderson Wilson. Richard died and Martha married second James Strain Witherspoon. They had several children and he died. Martha married, third, John Joshua Trammel, a widower with several children. They lived in Wash. Co. Ark near white R. bridge east of Senora.

The Record of the Combs Cemetery is not complete as I copied only the oldest epitaphs.

The Edmondson was copied from the family record of Mrs. Perry Baker Oxford, Waddington, Ark. She had copied the Edmondson record from the family Bible, now in possession of her brother John Edmondson of Calif.

The Nelson record was copied from the Bible in the home of Sidney Nelson, of the Walnut Grove Community south east of Farmington, Ark.

The Hawthorn School record was compiled by my father Claud Wilson, Chelsea, Okla. who was the son of John Thagan Wilson and nephew of Arkansas and Eldridge H. Wilson. He wrote to the descendants of these elderly people (who attended school at the Hawthorn School), which covered a period of two years to get all the birth and death dates on these students of this early school at Farmington, Ark.

Their daughter Rebecca Hudson Farrar married Christopher Tompkins III. August 29th, 1805

Henry Clay was the fifth child of seven of a preacher. They were left fatherless when quite young. His school was obtained (this surely must mean schooling) in a log school house. This was sent by Henry Clay's grand-daughter Miss Lucretia Clay in exchange for the Farrar Tree. I don't know how she found me out. She lived in Kentucky. Signed James Peagin Tompkins
